We, the members of the class of 1988, pause at the end of our High School days to reflect with sadness upon the untimely death of our classmate, Mark Beane. 1970-1985

Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream. I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the skies flashed the scenes from my life. In each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One was mine and one was the Lord's.

When the last scene of my life appeared before my eyes, I looked back at the footprints in the sand, and, to my surprise, I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. And I noticed that it was at the lowest and saddest times in my life.

I asked the Lord about it: "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I notice that during the most troubled times of my life there is one set of footprints. I don't understand why you left my side when I needed you most."

The Lord said, "My precious child, I never left you during your time of trial. Where you see only one set of footprints, I was carrying you."

You've Got a Friend

When you're down and troubled,
And you need a helping hand,
And nothing, nothing is going right.
Close your eyes and think of me,
And soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night.

You just call out my name,
And you know wherever I am,
I'll come running, to see you again.
Winter, spring, summer, or fall,
All you got to do is call.
And I'll be there,
You've got a friend.

If the sky above you,
Should turn dark and full of clouds,
And that old north wind should begin to blow,
Keep your head together,
And call my name out loud
soon I will be knocking upon your door.

You just call out my name,
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running, to see you again.
Winter, spring, summer, or fall,
All you got to do is call.
And I'll be there,
You've got a friend.

Ain't it good to know that you've got a friend,
When people can be so cold,
They'll hurt you,
And desert you,
Well they'll take your soul if you let them,
But don't you let them.

You just call out my name,
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running, to see you again.
Winter, Spring, Summer, or Fall,
All you got to do is call.
And I'll be there,
You've got a friend.

To every thing there is a season,
And a time for every purpose under the heaven;
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.
